DISTRICT OF MASSACHUSETTS

Civil Action No. _____

-----
COACH, INC. and COACH SERVICES, INC. :

Plaintiffs, :

v. :

GLOBAL CELLULAR, RAY LUCAS and DOES
1-10, :

Defendants. :

COMPLAINT

Plaintiffs Coach, Inc. and Coach Services, Inc. (together, “Coach”), through their undersigned counsel, for their complaint against Defendants, Global Cellular and Ray Lucas (together, “Defendants”), allege as follows:

Nature of the Action

1. This is an action for trademark and trade dress infringement under the Lanham Act (15 U.S.C. §§ 1114, 1116, 1117, 1125(a), (c), and (d)); copyright infringement under the United States Copyright Act (17 U.S.C. § 501 et seq.); trademark dilution under Massachusetts General Laws, Chapter 110H; and unfair competition under the Commonwealth of Massachusetts common law and General Laws, Chapter 93A.

Jurisdiction and Venue

2. Jurisdiction over the parties and subject matter of this action is proper in this Court pursuant to 15 U.S.C. § 1121 (actions arising under the Lanham Act), 28 U.S.C. § 1331 (actions arising under the laws of the United States), 28 U.S.C. § 1332(a) (diversity of citizenship between the parties), and § 1338(a) (actions arising under an Act of Congress relating to copyrights and trademarks). This Court has supplemental jurisdiction over the claims in this Complaint that arise under state statutory and common law pursuant to 28 U.S.C. § 1367(a).

3. This Court has personal jurisdiction over the Defendants because they do business, are incorporated, and/or are authorized to do business in the Commonwealth of Massachusetts.

4. Venue is properly founded in this judicial district pursuant to 28 U.S.C. §§ 1391(b) and (c) and 1400(a) because Defendants reside in this District, may be found in this District, and/or a substantial part of the events giving rise to the claims in this action occurred within this District.

Parties

5. Plaintiff Coach, Inc. is a corporation duly organized and existing under the laws of the State of Maryland, with its principal place of business in New York, New York. Plaintiff Coach Services, Inc. is a corporation duly organized and existing under the laws of the State of Maryland with its principal place of business in Jacksonville, Florida.

6. Upon information and belief, Defendant Global Cellular is a business entity with a principal place of business at 793 Iyannough Road, Hyannis, Massachusetts (the “Cape Cod Mall”). Upon information and belief, Global Cellular is a d/b/a for another entity, whose name is unknown at this time.

7. Upon information and belief, Defendant Ray Lucas is an individual with a business address of 793 Iyannough Road, Hyannis, Massachusetts, and is the owner of Global Cellular.

8. Plaintiff is unaware of the names and true capacities of Defendants, whether individual, corporate and/or partnership entities, named herein as DOES 1 through 10, inclusive, and therefore sues them by their fictitious names. Plaintiff will seek leave to amend this complaint when their true names and capacities are ascertained. Plaintiff is informed and believes and based thereon alleges that said Defendants and DOES 1 through 10, inclusive, are in some manner responsible for the wrongs alleged herein, and that at all times referenced each was the agent and servant of the other Defendants and was acting within the course and scope of said agency and employment.

9. Plaintiff is informed and believe, and based thereon allege, that at all relevant times herein, Defendants and DOES 1 through 10, inclusive, knew or reasonably should have known of the acts and behavior alleged herein and the damages caused thereby, and by their inaction ratified and encouraged such acts and behavior. Plaintiff further alleges that Defendants and DOES 1 through 10, inclusive, have a non-delegable duty to prevent or cause such acts and the behavior described herein, which duty Defendants and DOES 1 though 10, inclusive, failed and/or refused to perform.

The World Famous Coach Brand and Products

10. Coach was founded almost seventy years ago as a family-run workshop in Manhattan. Since then Coach has been engaged in the manufacture, marketing and sale of fine leather and mixed material products including handbags, wallets and accessories including eyewear, footwear, jewelry and watches. Coach sells its goods through its own specialty retail stores, department stores, catalogs and via an Internet website www.coach.com throughout the United States.

11. Coach has used a variety of legally-protected trademarks, trade dresses, and design elements/copyrights for many years on and in connection with the advertisement and sale of its products, including those detailed in paragraphs 11-24 of this Complaint (together, the “Coach Marks”).

12. Coach has expended substantial time, money, and other resources in developing, advertising, and otherwise promoting the Coach Marks. As a result, products bearing the Coach Marks are widely recognized and exclusively associated by consumers, the public, and the trade as being high quality products sourced from Coach, and have acquired strong secondary meaning. Coach products have also become among the most popular in the world, with Coach's annual global sales currently exceeding three billion dollars.

14. These registrations are valid, subsisting, in full force and effect, and have become incontestable pursuant to 15 U.S.C. §1065.<sup>1</sup>

15. The registration of the marks constitutes prima facie evidence of their validity and conclusive evidence of Coach's exclusive right to use the Coach Trademarks in connection with the goods identified therein and other commercial goods.

16. The registration of the marks also provides sufficient notice to Defendants of Coach's ownership and exclusive rights in the Coach Trademarks.

17. The Coach Trademarks qualify as famous marks, as that term is used in 15 U.S.C. § 1125 (c)(1).

18. The Coach Trademarks at issue in this case have been continuously used and have never been abandoned.

The Coach Trade Dress

19. Coach is the owner of a variety of unique and distinctive trade dresses consisting of a combination of one or more features, including sizes, shapes, colors, designs, fabrics, hardware, hangtags, stitching patterns and other non-functional elements comprising the overall look and feel incorporated into Coach products (the "Coach Trade Dresses").

20. Consumers immediately identify Coach as the single source of high quality products bearing the Coach Trade Dresses.

21. The Coach Trade Dresses associated with Coach products are independent of the functional aspects of Coach products.

22. Coach has employed the Coach Trade Dresses associated with its products exclusively and without interruption, and the Coach Trade Dresses have never been abandoned.

---

<sup>1</sup> All registrations originally held in the name of Coach's predecessors, Sara Lee Corporation and Saramar Corporation, were assigned in full to Coach on or about October 2, 2000.

The Coach Design Elements

Copyrights

23. Many of the decorative and artistic combinations of the design elements present on Coach products are independently protected works under the United States Copyright Laws. These design elements are wholly original works and fixed in various tangible products and media, thereby qualifying as copyrightable subject matter under the United States Copyright Act, 17 U.S.C. Sections 101 et seq. (hereinafter referred to as the “Coach Design Elements”).

24. Amongst others, Coach has a valid copyright registered with the Copyright Office for its “Horse & Carriage” design, with registration number VA0001714051.

25. At all times relevant hereto, Coach has been the sole owner and proprietor of all rights, title, and interest in and to the copyrights in the Design Elements used on Coach products, and such copyrights are valid, subsisting and in full force and effect.

Defendants’ Acts of Infringement and Unfair Competition

26. Upon information and belief, Defendants are engaged in designing, manufacturing, advertising, promoting, distributing, selling, and/or offering for sale products bearing logos and source-identifying indicia and design elements that are studied imitations of the Coach Trademarks, the Coach Trade Dresses, and the Coach Design Elements (hereinafter referred to as the “Infringing Products”). Defendants’ specific conduct includes, among other things:

A. Defendants prominently display counterfeit Coach products in their retail store located at the Cape Cod Mall as an enticement to attract potential customers to their business.

B. On or about September 7, 2010 an investigator working on behalf of Coach entered the Global Cellular store at the Cape Cod Mall and observed approximately one dozen counterfeit hard-cover cellular phone cases being offered for sale. These products bear the Signature C fabric pattern and the Coach Horse & Carriage trademarked logo.

C. The Investigator purchased one Infringing Product for $15.00. Coach does not manufacture this type of product. Coach does manufacture a soft Universal Case which retails for approximately $60.00.

D. The owner of Global Cellular, Mr. Lucas, told Coach's investigator that he is the distributor/supplier to all of the local malls for these counterfeit hard-cover cellular phone cases.

E. Global Cellular is not and never has been an authorized supplier or retailer of authentic Coach goods.

27. Defendants are well aware of the extraordinary fame and strength of the Coach Brand, the Coach Trademarks, the Coach Trade Dresses, and the Coach Design Elements, and the incalculable goodwill associated therewith.

28. Defendants have no license, authority, or other permission from Coach to use any of the Coach Trademarks, the Coach Trade Dresses, or the Coach Design Elements in connection with the designing, manufacturing, advertising, promoting, distributing, selling, and/or offering for sale of the Infringing Products or in connection with the use of the Infringing Domain Name.

29. Defendants have been engaging in the above-described illegal counterfeiting and infringing activities knowingly and intentionally or with reckless disregard or willful blindness to Coach's rights, or with bad faith, for the purpose of trading on the goodwill and reputation of the Coach Marks and Coach products.

30. Defendants' activities, as described above, are likely to create a false impression and deceive consumers, the public, and the trade into believing that there is a connection or association between the Infringing Products and Coach.

31. Upon information and belief, Defendants intend to continue to design, manufacture, advertise, promote, import, distribute, sell, and/or offer for sale the Infringing Products, unless otherwise restrained.

32. Coach is suffering irreparable injury, has suffered substantial damages as a result of Defendant's activities, and has no adequate remedy at law.

COUNT I
(Trademark Counterfeiting, 15 U.S.C. § 1114)

33. Coach repeats and realleges the allegations set forth in paragraphs 1-32.

34. Defendants, without authorization from Coach, have used and are continuing to use spurious designations that are identical to, or substantially indistinguishable from, Coach's Trademarks.

35. The foregoing acts of Defendants are intended to cause, have caused, and are likely to continue to cause confusion or mistake, or to deceive consumers, the public, and the trade into believing that Defendants' Infringing Products are genuine or authorized products of Coach.

36. Upon information and belief, Defendants have acted with knowledge of Coach's ownership of the Coach Trademarks and with deliberate intention or willful blindness to unfairly benefit from the incalculable goodwill inherent in the Coach Marks.

37. Defendants' acts constitute trademark counterfeiting in violation of Section 32 of the Lanham Act (15 U.S.C. § 1114).

38. Upon information and belief, Defendants have made and will continue to make substantial profits and gains to which they are not in law or equity entitled.

39. Upon information and belief, Defendants intend to continue their infringing acts, unless restrained by this Court.

40. Defendants' acts have damaged and will continue to damage Coach, and Coach has no adequate remedy at law.

COUNT II
(Trademark Infringement, 15 U.S.C. § 1114)

41. Coach repeats and realleges the allegations set forth in paragraphs 1-40.

42. Defendants, without authorization from Coach, have used and are continuing to use spurious designations that are identical to, or substantially indistinguishable from, Coach's Trademarks.

43. The foregoing acts of Defendants are intended to cause, have caused, and are likely to continue to cause confusion, mistake, and deception among consumers, the public, and the trade as to whether Defendant's Infringing Products originate from, or are affiliated with, sponsored by, or endorsed by Coach.

44. Upon information and belief, Defendants have acted with knowledge of Coach's ownership of the Coach Trademarks and with deliberate intention or willful blindness to unfairly benefit from the incalculable goodwill symbolized thereby.

45. Defendants' acts constitute trademark infringement in violation of Section 32 of the Lanham Act (15 U.S.C. § 1114).

46. Upon information and belief, Defendants have made and will continue to make substantial profits and gains to which they are not in law or equity entitled.

47. Upon information and belief, Defendants intend to continue their infringing acts, unless restrained by this Court.

48. Defendants' acts have damaged and will continue to damage Coach, and Coach has no adequate remedy at law.

COUNT III
(Trade Dress Infringement, 15 U.S.C. § 1125(a))

49. Coach repeats and realleges the allegations set forth in paragraphs 1-48.

50. The Coach Trade Dresses are used in commerce, non-functional, inherently distinctive, and have acquired secondary meaning in the marketplace.

51. Defendants, without authorization from Coach, have designed, manufactured, advertised, promoted, distributed, sold, and/or offered for sale, and/or are causing to be designed, manufactured, advertised, promoted, distributed, sold, and/or offered for sale, products which contain a collection of design elements that is confusingly similar to the Coach Trade Dresses.

52. The foregoing acts of Defendants are intended to cause, have caused, and are likely to continue to cause confusion, mistake, and deception among consumers, the public, and the trade who recognize and associate the Coach Trade Dresses with Coach. Moreover, Defendants' conduct is likely to cause confusion, to cause mistake, or to deceive consumers, the public, and the trade as to the source of the Infringing Products, or as to a possible affiliation, connection or association between Coach, the Defendants, and the Infringing Products.

53. Upon information and belief, Defendants have acted with knowledge of Coach's ownership of the Coach Trade Dresses and with deliberate intention or willful blindness to unfairly benefit from the incalculable goodwill symbolized thereby.

54. Defendants' acts constitute trade dress infringement in violation of Section 43(a) of the Lanham Act (15 U.S.C. § 1125(a)).

55. Upon information and belief, Defendants have made and will continue to make substantial profits and gains to which they are not in law or equity entitled.

56. Upon information and belief, Defendants intend to continue their infringing acts, unless restrained by this Court.

57. Defendants' acts have damaged and will continue to damage Coach, and Coach has no adequate remedy at law.

COUNT IV

(False Designation of Origin and False Advertising, 15 U.S.C. § 1125(a))

58. Coach repeats and realleges the allegations set forth in paragraphs 1-57.

59. Defendants' promotion, advertising, distribution, sale, and/or offering for sale of the Infringing Products, together with Defendants' use of other indicia associated with Coach is intended, and is likely to confuse, mislead, or deceive consumers, the public, and the trade as to the origin, source, sponsorship, or affiliation of the Infringing Products, and is intended, and is likely to cause such parties to believe in error that the Infringing Products have been authorized, sponsored, approved, endorsed or licensed by Coach, or that Defendants are in some way affiliated with Coach.

60. The foregoing acts of Defendants constitute a false designation of origin, and false and misleading descriptions and representations of fact, all in violation of Section 43(a) of the Lanham Act (15 U.S.C. § 1125(a)).

61. Upon information and belief, Defendants have made and will continue to make substantial profits and gains to which they are not in law or equity entitled.

62. Upon information and belief, Defendants intend to continue their infringing acts, unless restrained by this Court.

63. Defendants' acts have damaged and will continue to damage Coach, and Coach has no adequate remedy at law.

COUNT V

(Trademark Dilution, 15 U.S.C. § 1125(c))

64. Coach repeats and realleges the allegations set forth in paragraphs 1-63.

65. The Coach Trademarks are strong and distinctive marks that have been in use for many years and have achieved enormous and widespread public recognition.

66. The Coach Trademarks are famous within the meaning of Section 43(c) of the Lanham Act (15 U.S.C. § 1125(c)).

67. Defendants' use of the Infringing Products, without authorization from Coach, is diluting the distinctive quality of the Coach Trademarks and decreasing the capacity of such marks to identify and distinguish Coach products.

68. Defendants have intentionally and willfully diluted the distinctive quality of the famous Coach Trademarks in violation of Section 43(c) of the Lanham Act (15 U.S.C. § 1125(c)).

69. Upon information and belief, Defendants have made and will continue to make substantial profits and gains to which they are not in law or equity entitled.

70. Upon information and belief, Defendants intend to continue their infringing acts, unless restrained by this Court.

71. Defendants' acts have damaged and will continue to damage Coach, and Coach has no adequate remedy at law.

COUNT VI
(Copyright Infringement, 17 U.S.C. § 501)

72. Coach repeats and realleges the allegations set forth in paragraphs 1-71.

73. Many of the Coach Design Elements contain decorative and artistic combinations that are protected under the United States Copyright Act (17 U.S.C. § 101 et seq.). Coach has a valid registered copyright in the Horse and Carriage Logo.

74. Upon information and belief, Defendants had access to and copied the Coach Design Elements present on Coach products.

75. Defendants intentionally infringed Coach's copyrights by creating and distributing the Infringing Products without Coach's consent or authorization.

76. Defendants have infringed Coach's copyrights in violation of 17 U.S.C. § 501 et seq.

77. Upon information and belief, Defendants have made and will continue to make substantial profits and gains to which they are not in law or equity entitled.

78. Upon information and belief, Defendants intend to continue their infringing acts, unless restrained by this Court.

79. Defendants' acts have damaged and will continue to damage Coach, and Coach has no adequate remedy at law.

COUNT VII
(Common Law Trademark Infringement)

80. Coach repeats and realleges the allegations set forth in paragraphs 1-79.

81. Coach owns all rights, title, and interest in and to the Coach Trademarks, including all common law rights in such marks.

82. Defendants, without authorization from Coach, have used and are continuing to use spurious designations that are identical to, or substantially indistinguishable from, the Coach Trademarks.

83. The foregoing acts of Defendants are intended to cause, have caused, and are likely to continue to cause confusion, mistake, and deception among consumers, the public, and the trade as to whether Defendant's Infringing Products originate from, or are affiliated with, sponsored by, or endorsed by Coach.

84. Upon information and belief, Defendants have acted with knowledge of Coach's ownership of the Coach Trademarks and with deliberate intention or willful blindness to unfairly benefit from the incalculable goodwill symbolized thereby.

85. Defendants' acts constitute common law trademark infringement.

86. Upon information and belief, Defendants have made and will continue to make substantial profits and gains to which they are not in law or equity entitled.

87. Upon information and belief, Defendants intend to continue their infringing acts, unless restrained by this Court.

88. Defendants' acts have damaged and will continue to damage Coach, and Coach has no adequate remedy at law.

COUNT VIII
(Trademark Dilution, M. G.L. ch. 110H, § 14)

89. Coach repeats and realleges the allegations set forth in paragraphs 1-88.

90. The Coach Trademarks are strong and distinctive marks that have been in use for many years and have achieved enormous and widespread public recognition.

91. Through prominent, long, and continuous use in commerce, including commerce within the Commonwealth of Massachusetts, the Coach Trademarks have become and continue to be famous and distinctive.

92. Defendants' use of the Infringing Products, without authorization from Coach, is diluting the distinctive quality of the Coach Trademarks and decreasing the capacity of such marks to identify and distinguish Coach products and has caused a likelihood of harm to Coach's business reputation in violation of Massachusetts law.

93. Defendants have diluted the distinctive quality of the famous Coach Trademarks in violation of Massachusetts law.

94. Upon information and belief, Defendants have made and will continue to make substantial profits and gains to which they are not in law or equity entitled.

95. Upon information and belief, Defendants intend to continue their infringing acts, unless restrained by this Court.

96. Defendants' acts have damaged and will continue to damage Coach, and Coach has no adequate remedy at law.

COUNT IX
(Common Law Unfair Competition)

97. Coach repeats and realleges the allegations set forth in paragraphs 1-96.

98. The foregoing acts of Defendants constitute unfair competition in violation of the common law of the Commonwealth of Massachusetts.

99. Upon information and belief, Defendants have made and will continue to make substantial profits and gains to which they are not in law or equity entitled.

100. Upon information and belief, Defendants intend to continue their infringing acts, unless restrained by this Court.

101. Defendants' acts have damaged and will continue to damage Coach, and Coach has no adequate remedy at law.

COUNT X
(Unfair Competition and Deceptive Trade Practices (Mass .G.L. ch. 93A §11))

102. Coach repeats and realleges the allegations set forth in paragraphs 1-101.

103. The parties are engaged in commerce within the meaning of Mass. G.L. ch. 93A, §11.

104. The acts complained of above took place within Massachusetts and represent unfair competition and deceptive trade practices.

105. Defendants' acts have damaged and will continue to damage Coach, and Coach has no adequate remedy at law.

COUNT XI
(Unjust Enrichment)

106. Coach repeats and realleges the allegations set forth in paragraphs 1-105.

107. The acts complained of above constitute unjust enrichment of Defendants at Coach's expense.

WHEREFORE, Coach respectfully requests that this Court enter judgment against Defendants as follows:

A. Finding that: (i) Defendants have violated Section 32 of the Lanham Act (15 U.S.C. § 1114); Section 43(a) of the Lanham Act (15 U.S.C. § 1125(a)); Section 43(c) of the Lanham Act (15 U.S.C. § 1125(c)); and Section 43(d) of the Lanham Act (15 U.S.C. § 1125(d)); (ii) Defendants have violated Section 501 of the Copyright Act of 1976 (17 U.S.C. § 501); (iii) Defendants have diluted the Coach Trademarks in violation of M. G.L. ch. 110H; (iv) Defendants have engaged in trademark infringement and unfair competition under the common law and statutes of Massachusetts; and (v) Defendants have been unjustly enriched in violation of Massachusetts common law.

B. Granting an injunction, pursuant to Rule 65 of the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure, 15 U.S.C. § 1116, 17 U.S.C. § 502, and M. G.L. ch. 110H, preliminarily and permanently restraining and enjoining Defendants, their officers, agents, employees, and attorneys, and all those persons or entities in active concert or participation with them from:

1. manufacturing, importing, advertising, marketing, promoting, supplying, distributing, offering for sale, or selling any products which bear the Coach Trademarks, the Coach Trade Dresses, and/or the Coach Design Elements, or any other mark or design element substantially similar or confusing thereto, including, without limitation, the Infringing Products, and engaging in any other activity constituting an infringement of any of Coach's rights in the Coach Trademarks, the Coach Trade Dresses, and/or the Coach Design Elements;

2. engaging in any other activity constituting unfair competition with Coach, or acts and practices that deceive consumers, the public, and/or trade, including without limitation, the use of designations and design elements associated with Coach; or

3. engaging in any other activity that will cause the distinctiveness of the Coach Trademarks or Coach Trade Dresses to be diluted.

C. Requiring Defendants to identify the source (name, address and contact information of the person(s) who supplied them with the Infringing Products) and recall from any distributors and retailers and to deliver to Coach for destruction or other disposition all remaining inventory of all Infringing Products, including all advertisements, promotional and marketing materials therefore, as well as means of making same;

D. Requiring Defendants to file with this Court and serve on Coach within thirty days after entry of the injunction a report in writing under oath setting forth in detail the manner and form in which Defendants have complied with the injunction;

E. Directing such other relief as the Court may deem appropriate to prevent consumers, the public, and/or the trade from deriving any erroneous impression that any product at issue in this action that has been manufactured, imported, advertised, marketed, promoted, supplied, distributed, offered for sale, or sold by Defendants, has been authorized by Coach, or is related in any way with Coach and/or its products;

F. Awarding Coach statutory damages of $2,000,000 per counterfeit mark per type of Infringing Products in accordance with Section 35 of the Lanham Act (15 U.S.C. § 1117) or alternatively, ordering Defendants to account to and pay to Coach all profits realized by their wrongful acts and also awarding Coach its actual damages, and also directing that such profits or actual damages be trebled, in accordance with Section 35 of the Lanham Act (15 U.S.C. § 1117);

G. Awarding Coach statutory damages or in the alternative its actual damages suffered as a result of the copyright infringement, and any profits of Defendants not taken into account in computing the actual damages, pursuant to 17 U.S.C. § 504;

H. Awarding Coach actual and punitive damages to which it is entitled under applicable federal and state laws;

I. Awarding Coach its costs, attorneys fees, investigatory fees, and expenses to the full extent provided by Section 35 of the Lanham Act (15 U.S.C. § 1117) and Section 505 of the Copyright Act of 1976 (17 U.S.C. § 505) and Mass. Gen. L. ch. 93A;

J. Awarding Coach pre-judgment interest on any monetary award made part of the judgment against Defendants; and

K. Awarding Coach such additional and further relief as the Court deems just and proper.

DEMAND FOR JURY TRIAL

Pursuant to Rule 38(b) of the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure, Coach requests a trial by jury in this matter.
